Along the shore . . .

*I have been here before,
But when or how I cannot tell;
I know the grass beyond the door,
The sweet keen smell,
The sighing sound, and the lights
Along the Shore.*

Dante Gabriel Rossetti

The Beauvoir

THE BEAUVOIR is published by the students of Jefferson Davis Campus, Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College, Gulfport, Mississippi 39501. It is the Jefferson Davis section of the College yearbook, THE TRIDENT, New Series, Volume X, 1984.

Pageant
March 26, 1983*

Under the Pageant Marquee

Miss Jefferson Davis Campus

On Saturday evening, March 26, 1983, thirteen lovely J. D. "Dreamgirls" — midst Broadway marquees and music and Jaz — came center stage in the Fine Arts Auditorium to participate in the 1983 Pageant. The finalist "Dreamgirls" were: Noemi Gonzalez, the talent and title winner; Cindy Mathews, swimsuit award recipient and first runner-up; Laurie Gilbert, second runner-up; Debbie Wade and Donna Wade, tied for third runner-up; and Lucy Cook, who received the Miss Congeniality award. Others who searched for "their own special dreams": Tracy Ballard, Zelda Collins, Liz Rogers, Claiborne Smith, Ratonda Tyler, Ginger Usey, Lorine White. In July, Cindy Mathews succeeded to the 1983 title and represented the Campus at the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

The College

This brings a close to the Jefferson Davis Campus 1983-1984 view of "Along the Shore."

My gratitude is extended to The Beauvoir staff members for their time and effort.

A special thank you goes to the faculty, staff, administration — and, of course, the sponsor — for their cooperation and patience with our requests and problems.

I hope the 1983-1984 Beauvoir will bring back cherished memories in the future years to all.

Trustees re-elect Switzer to chair board

Mrs. Eula Switzer of Biloxi was reelected to chair Gulf Coast's 29-member Board of Trustees, the college's policy-making body. Mrs. Switzer, vice president of Coast Water Works, Inc., was one of five officers elected unanimously at the December 1983 meeting. Among them is James E. Bryan of Wiggins, a retired forester, who was elected first vice chairman.

Others are Warner Peterson of Pascagoula, second vice chairman; Joseph H. D'Angelo of Gulfport, secretary; and Wilbur

G. Ward of Lucedale, treasurer.

Mrs. Switzer, who was appointed to the board by Harrison County Beat 4 Supervisor Hue Snowden, also represents Beat 5. She is the only trustee to represent more than one district and the first woman to chair the GCJC board.

Active in civic affairs, Mrs. Switzer is a member of many organizations, including the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Mississippi Trustees Association. She was president of both groups.

Homecoming 1983

Alumni honor banker

Sometimes the burning taper of one small deed lights the way to a lifetime of selfless service to humankind.

It happened that way to John Dees during the dark, lean years of the Great Depression.

There was a black family living in the Mississippi Delta who wanted to come home to Perkinston. They had been tenant farmers and now were destitute. My father sent me to get them, Dees recalls. He continues:

When I got to Arcola, driving an open truck, I found waiting for me a grandmother and a widowed mother and her nine children. They didn't have a nickel among them.

We packed all their possessions in the truck and they climbed on top. I imagine we looked like something from the Grapes of Wrath.

When we arrived in Vicksburg, I stopped and bought a dozen hamburgers and soft drinks to go with them. That was the last time we ate until we got to Perkinston about 2:30 the next morning.

Those people were so overjoyed that someone cared about them. Seeing that happiness made an impression on me. It was then that I became interested in helping people in need.

John Clifton Dees

Hall of Fame inductee

John Clifton Dees, Bank of Wiggins board chairman and retired businessman, was inducted into the Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College Hall of Fame on November 5, 1983.

A 1931 graduate of what is now Perkinston Campus, Dees became the 14th recipient of the award, presented to him by GGCJC President Dr. J.J. Hayden, Jr. at a homecoming banquet at Perkinston.

In accepting the award, Dees said he has "always believed that an education is a good investment, but that a junior college education is still the best bargain."

Dees was born in 1912, the same year the Harrison County Agricultural High School (now the Perkinston Campus) began operation. And for more than 44 years he lived in its shadow.

He told the more than 400 guests who had assembled to pay him homage that he was "supervisor of the barnyard" when he was a student at Gulf Coast. "The job taught me two things," he said, "how to be a supervisor and to watch my step."

For 30 years Dees served as a Stone County supervisor, claiming the office in the first primary for eight consecutive terms.

"I am proud of this college and its leadership — it's the best (junior college) in the state," proclaimed Dees.

A staunch supporter of MGCJC, Dees helped students to obtain their first two years of college before scholarships were known. He continues to contribute a full scholarship each year and coordinates another full scholarship from the Bank of Wiggins.

Earlier at the banquet, T.L. Davis, president of the Bank of Wiggins, announced that two perpetual $500 scholarships in tribute to Dees and MGCJC have been established by the bank's board of directors.

The scholarships will be awarded each year "as a token payment to a man who has spent most of his adult life helping fellow humans," said Davis.

Dees, a humanitarian in his own right, always found time to be involved in civic affairs and to help his community. Some of the visible things resulting from his untiring efforts are the Stone County Library, the Stone County Office Building, Flint Creek Water Park, International Paper Company and the Mental Health Center in Gulfport.

Owen Award Hague cited for service

The Sam Owen Trophy for distinguished service to Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College was awarded to Hermes Hague of Pascagoula during pre-game ceremonies.

Hague, a 1943 graduate of what now is MGCJC Perkinston Campus, was presented the trophy by Mrs. Eula Switzer of Biloxi.

Receiving a permanent trophy from Switzer, chairperson of MGCJC Board of Trustees, was George Schlogel, Gulfport banker, who was last year's recipient of the award. The presentations were made during the MGCJC homecoming on Perkinston Campus.

Hague, immediate past president of MGCJC Alumni Association, was cited for exceptional service to the college through his work with the alumni and foundation. He was introduced by college president Dr. J.J. Hayden, Jr.

Having served two consecutive terms as district alumni president, Hague previously served as first and second district vice president and as president of the Jackson County alumni chapter. While district president, he was an honorary member of the Foundation Board of Directors.

Hague is employed by the National Marine Fisheries Service as Fishery Report Specialist, a position he has held more than 30 years.

They're tops! Instructors of the Year named

The highest pinnacle of success is obtained when one is recognized for excellence in a chosen profession.

The professional excellence of three college instructors was recognized during the spring Alumni Association banquet when they were cited for the Instructor of the Year honor.

The instructors were selected by students, faculty, administrators and alumni for their outstanding contributions to education and to the community. They are Cheryl Catalano, Perkinston, general studies; Karen A. Davis, Jackson County, A.D. nursing; and Quincy Long, Jefferson Davis, science.

Catalano has taught at Perkinston for four years and at the Keesler Center part time (history) for eight years. She is a member of the Junior College Council, Mississippi Reading Association, Phi Gamma Mu, Phi Alpha Theta, Southeastern Conference on English in the Two Year College, and National Council of English Teachers. She has served on numerous campus committees and as faculty advisor to the Alumni Association Board of Directors. She is an active member of the association. A member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Catalano has taught Sunday School for 12 years. She and her husband, Guy, make their home in Long Beach.

Davis has been teaching for eight years at Jackson County Campus. She is a member of American Nurses Association and is first vice president and member of the board of directors of District No. 6 Nurses Association. She is Faculty Advisor for the Student Nurses Association and has served on various campus committees. Davis is organist at St. Elizabeth Seaton's Catholic Church. She and her husband, John, reside in Ocean Springs.

Long has taught at the Jefferson Davis Campus for 18 years. His memberships include Beta Chi Chapter of Beta Beta Beta, U.S.M. Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, and Omicron Delta Kappa. He was elected to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. A resident of Long Beach, he served on a special citizens' committee for zoning a newly annexed area, and as a Cub Scout den leader. He is a member of the Long Beach Junior High PTA. Long and his wife, Mary, make their home in Long Beach.

Ruth Ford honored

Ruth Ford, MGCJC development officer who resigned in July of 1983, was honored at a homecoming luncheon. She was presented a silver chafing dish by Dolores Mauldin, district alumni president.

Ruth has returned to teaching so she may have more time to spend with her young daughter, Alison.

Eight of the nine years she worked for the college were spent with the Alumni Association and the Foundation.

Her grace and charisma strengthened existing relationships with alumni and made many new friends for the college. Both organizations flourished under her supervision.

Ruth, assisted by daughter Alison, opens gift from the Alumni Association.

Among them were guard Kenneth Bourgeois of Harvey, La., who made the NJCAA first team All-American and Grid Wire's second team.

Others were defensive end Randall Webster, first on Grid Wire's All-American team and second on NJCAA's squad, running back Eddie Collins, honorable mention by the NJCAA and by Grid Wire, and punter-kicker Kirk Basone, second nationally among the top 10 punters and an honorable mention All-American by both rating bureaus. All are from Gulfport.

Bourgeois, Webster and Collins were first team picks in the NJCAA's Regional XIII. They also were selected the Most Valuable Players in the Mississippi Junior College Conference.

And, for the second straight year and the third time career-wise, Sekul was named Coach of the Year in the region.

Sekul's Bulldogs

Jones ends dream of bowl bid

For the second time in a row, Coach George Sekul's Gulf Coast Bulldogs in 1983 were knocked out of a national bowl bid. This time their undoing was a 17-12 loss to Jones in the state championship football game at Pascagoula.

At stake, in addition to the title, was an invitation to the East Bowl, a regional game sanctioned by the National Junior College Athletic Association. Jones hosted the affair at Ellisville and won it.

The year before, the Bulldogs tied Northwest 7-7 to share the state title. But it was the Rangers and not Gulf Coast who went to the 1982 bowl and captured the National championship.

Gulf Coast went into the game against Jones with a 10-1 record, good enough to be first in South Division Conference play.

Even after the loss, the Bulldogs were ranked ninth in the

Weathers' team ranks second in South

At yearbook deadline time in late January, Gulf Coast's men's basketball team was ranked second in the South Division behind conference leader Co-Lin.

The Bulldog's record was 15-4 overall and 6-2 in the South with five regular season games remaining.

Because of his team's winning ways, veteran coach Bob Weathers was listed by the National Junior College Athletic Association in ninth place for all-time wins (507 against only 160 losses) and fifth among active junior college coaches in the United States.

The 1982-83 squad won the South Division championship, the 10th for Weathers coached teams, which have copped the state title six times, the most recent in 1981.

Lady Bulldogs tie for sixth place in division

The Lady Bulldogs of Coach Doris Smith, led by highscorer Kim Clark of Reserve, La., were tied for sixth place in South Division basketball play when we went to press.

The ladies had an overall record of 5-15 and were 2-5 in conference play as the season was drawing to a close.

"The season would have been better had not one of our high scorers been out with a knee injury," said Smith. "Tammie Dedeaux, 5'11" center from Pass Christian, had been averaging 14 points and 9 rebounds a game until she got hurt."

Clark, 5'6" guard, has an average of 15 points, 5 rebounds, 5 assists, and 3 steals a game.

Other leading goal ringers are Denise McDonald of Blox and Darlene Watts of Gulfport, both with an average of 12 points a game.

On the diamond

men

At yearbook presstime, Coach Ken Farris was reading his 1984 baseball team for another go at the state title. The goal was barely missed in 1983 when the Bulldogs lost to Northwest in the state playoffs.

But 39 wins against 15 losses and the South Division championship were nothing to be ashamed of. The season pushed Farris' 21-year career record to an impressive 539 wins against a mere 152 defeats.

The winning ways of Farris-coached teams include 13 state and 19 division championships, an achievement unequalled in the annals of Mississippi junior college baseball and one of the best coaching records in the nation.

Bulldog players who won honors in 1983 were pitcher Doug Bornes of Biloxi and infielder Van Graham of Pascagoula. Both were named to the National Junior College Athletic Association's Region XXIII All-Star team.

Recognition also came Farris' way. In the summer of 1983 he was one of the coaches picked nationwide to coach in the United States Olympic Committee's National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs.

And in January of 1984, the venerable Farris was named by the United States Federation of Baseball to its six-man pool to accompany United States teams playing baseball overseas.

TRACK

Coach George Sekul's track team placed third in the state in 1983. Hinds wound up in second spot and Northwest won the title.

Top individual Bulldog performers were Matt Carpenter and Mike Fields.

Carpenter set records in both the South Division and State Championship meets in the three-mile run with a time of 15:34.2. He finished second in the mile. The speedster also competed but did not place in the National Junior College meet in San Angelo, Texas.

Fields set a new state record in the 440-yard intermediate hurdles with a time of 55.48.

GOLF

Gulf Coast's 1983 golf team placed third in the state and region.

The team composed of players from the Perkinston and Jefferson Davis campuses was coached by Charles Cooper.

Cooper said one of his most outstanding players was Tom Rogers of Jeff Davis Campus, who was named All-State and All-Region.

TENNIS

The 1983 tennis team, coached by Rose Schlie, placed second in the state and region behind Meridian Junior College, which hosted the playoffs.

Winning first place in the men's singles was Norman White. The Perkinston Campus student also qualified for the National Junior College Athletic Association's tennis competition in Ocala, Fla.

Myron Seaton of the Jackson County Campus placed second in men's singles and Kurt Schonberg, Jackson County, and Tommy Ranson, Jefferson Davis, copped a second in men's B doubles.

New name, new look

GC 'Band of Gold' sparkles

The band, made up of members from all three campuses, has a new look. The 115-piece marching band, under the direction of Virgil Fulcher, and the 34 woman dance team, whose choreographer is Delta De La Fuente, have new uniforms and props totaling more than $15,000.

The 'Band of Gold' performed at all 1983 home football games. They made several road trips and appeared in numerous parades.

Band members who were named to the All-State Band include Kathy Conroy, Tony Mack, Laura Logan, Carey Justice and Brian Price, all of Perkinston Campus, Cindy Selmer and Philip McCoy of Jefferson Davis, and Donna Weison, Charles Foster, Nancy Diaz and Robyn Dubrock, all of Jackson County.
