The Alma Mater

'Way down south there's a school that we all know,
Where the winds from the gulf doth ever blow,
 'Mong the pines so stately and so tall
 We listen to your call,
 We love you best of all.
Fame was thine through the years of the past,
And we know thy name shall ever last.
 Thou art noble, proud and true,
 Oh, Gulf Coast, we all love you!

A Moment of Reflection

Graduation ceremonies for all graduates continued to be held at the Perkinson Campus for three years after the formation of the two Gulf campuses. Following the presentation of diplomas at these ceremonies in 1966, 1967 and 1968, the graduates stood and sang the Alma Mater. Beginning in 1969, each campus began holding a separate graduation. The Alma Mater was never included in the graduation programs of the Jefferson Davis Campus or the Jackson County Campus. It did, however, continue to be listed on the Perkinson Campus programs until May 8, 1970. Beyond that date, no official publications of the institution included the words of the Alma Mater. On Homecoming Day, October 11, 2008, the tradition of singing the Alma Mater was reinstated but with the words "Gulf Coast" replacing the designation "Perkinson" in the original.

Join the Alumni Association

The history of the Alumni Association is rich in tradition. Established in 1928 as a link between the college, alumni, faculty and friends, the organization reaches out to graduates, and to those who have taken courses or completed a training program at the college since opening its doors to college students in the 1923-1924 school year.

Mac. It joined the M&EE family in fall 2012, and he has quite the fan following.

"He is just a great natured guy, considering his youth," says Dr. William Martin, the veterinarian who assisted with the selection of Mac. "His nature has many people are around, he remains social and curious. He is receiving letters everywhere he goes. There are too great qualities for a mascot."

Macley and his wife, Madeline, own the Animal Care Clinic in Huggins. They are partnering with the college to provide care for Mac.

Martin, an alumnus of M&EE, says the selection process for the puppy included vet-testing and checking the breeder's references and facilities, and performing a thorough health check on Mac several times. "Bullpups usually only live seven to 10 years, so you want him to be as healthy as possible and able to last a full life," he says.

South Mississippi McDonald's Franchisee George Deschay, along with the support of the Bulldog Club, made it possible to purchase Mac. "We just really love animals and always enjoy helping provide a special for the college," says Deschay, son of M&EE Board of Trustees member Pat Deschay. "It is wonderful that we have found a puppy with such a great personality. He will be easy for students and fans to relate to and enjoy seeing at games." The Deschays also helped the college purchase the previous Mac in 2010.

Ladd Taylor, M&EE's Dept. of Athletics, says having a real bulldog as a mascot is important to the college. "What has made it work is having the passionate support of not only the Bulldog Club but wonderful supporters like the Deschays."

He adds, "People just love seeing animals, especially one as cute as this guy."

A message from Dr. Mary S. Graham, MOCCC President

For more than 100 years, Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College has celebrated the success of students who have attended one of our college campuses. From our early beginnings as an agricultural high school and junior college with our students graduating to the first college graduates in 1955, MOCCC has worked to create students, graduate-ready institutions with more than 10,000 students annually. I encourage you to get committed to MOCCC, to the times and help us continue to focus on dedication and commitment to the education and success of our students.

STRATEGIC PLAN 2020

Inspiration for Strategic Plan 2020 began during fall 2011 with a series of focus forums. A community and business leaders were invited to discuss the college's current role in the community, Board of Trustees members and alumni. During the forums, leaders raise issues that related to the education level desired and needed in the business industry and the economic development of the region over time.

Several areas that offered both challenges and opportunities were identified. These included commitments to teaching and learning, staff talent, student success, community engagement and partnerships, and fostering a culture of excellence. These goals will be worked on a variety of level, using assessment that promote student involvement and responsibility for success. This includes using the Institute of Learning, Student Engagement, PLEI2012 study as the full assessment tool and the 100% achievement plan, assessment, reporting, planning, innovation and focus, and will be assessment of student and employee satisfaction through the use of the StaffCare survey.

Strategic Plan 2020 represents a shared vision among the stakeholders of the college with a specific, flexible, and dynamic focus on student success, college access, the student, and providing economic and educational success. The mission will also become all people to improve the quality of the college as the assessment process and ensure that will ensure total and personal growth of our students.

JACKSON COUNTY CAMPUS

Lagniappe Day 2012

Best days and occasions make Lagniappe Day a great time to celebrate spring on the Jackson County Campus. The annual spring concert attracted nearly 700 students and staff who enjoyed hotbed strawberries and barbecue chicken. Adding to the fun for the day was an Adventure Race, featuring lots of fun elements including kayaking, tube racing, a three-legged race and a "demonstration" segment provided by the Gaston Police Department.

Lindsay Benner

Classmate Lindsay Benner delighted a full cafeteria with her "Book of Love" tour stop at the Jackson County Campus on September 2. Lindsay's combination of juggling and unique commentary on the progression of relationships kept everyone entertained. Lindsay got her start performing her act on the streets of San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf. Inspired by classic vaudeville and golden-age comedy, she has spent two life working tirelessly to perfect the art of making people happy.

ThinkFast Game Show

The quick-paced game show ThinkFast made a stop at Lackawanna County College on October 3, bringing fun and helping raise awareness about the dangers of abusing drugs and alcohol. The game, an "MTV" version of the game Jeopardy, challenged participants on their pop-culture knowledge, while including facts about the consequences of drug and alcohol abuse.

Coastal Cleanup

Nearly 100 volunteers from the Jackson County Campus helped with the Coastal Cleanup in October 2011. With the flooding during Hurricane Isaac, there was plenty of trash to collect, even along the historic trail on campus. It's unfortunate, plus collected, happened around a public fishing area on the West Pascagoula River and at Shepherd State Park in Lumbert. Volunteers from all over Jackson County wrapped up their day at the Volunteer Education Center with hot lunch from The Shed.

Homecoming Rally

Jackson County Campus took time on October 14 to honor its 2012 Homecoming Court with a special luncheon followed by a pep rally. The S.C.C. pep band and cheerleaders were on hand for the pep rally and special presentation of the 2012 Homecoming Court.

Octoberfest

Approximately 300 students and neighbors enjoyed an amazingly beautiful day for JC's annual Oktoberfest celebration. Held on Halloween day this year, the day featured great food, live games, a costume contest, JC's Don Zumbie Band, and MMA/DMU wrestling. The Student Government Association's decorations set a festive mood. Several other student groups were involved in the activities, including Reflections, Business Services, Phi Theta Kappa, F-Tech, and Sigma Xi Student Union. All students were provided free parking. One of the highlights of the day was the traditional performance of the Lower Gateway to "Moose Mads".

Special Events Celebrate Christmas

Christmas season is always a special time for the J.C. family, and this campus family joined every to celebrate with new members and the marching band. This year, the holiday season kicked off with a reception for the lighting of the Christmas tree in the atrium of the Western Piedmont Administration Building. The first lady of Western Piedmont, Governor-elect Catherine Hanaway, and J.C. students and faculty members gathered to represent J.C. with a dedication to the annual Greater Christmas Parade. The campus's annual All the Shinying Tree drive collected new toys, clothes, books and other items for 14 J.C. student families, making Christmas better for more than 30 children in those families. Students bringing items to donate were treated to refreshments and a chance to contribute the season with a fun photo on their J.C. Santa Tree Photo Booth.

Freedom Walk and Black History Month

The Black History Program became a regular feature of the Jackson County Library during the late 1980s. The program seeks to honor and educate the community and community group organizations about significant events in Black history. The events started in December 20 to observe the month with the week prior being the Civil Rights Movement. A series of events has been held in the E. Library during the month of February to celebrate Black History Month. Special guest speakers included W.C.C. (Women's Christian Club), local business owner Debra Harris, and author Margaret Wheaton.

Around the World in 90 Minutes

In January, award-winning author Marty Lane took his TV audience on an adventure with his high-energy, multifaceted show, Around the World in 90 Minutes. Marty's show featured interesting facts, humorous stories, and the best of thousands of photos he took while traveling the world for his book, Carl Chubb's 90th Planet: Exploring the Solar System.

Odd?Rod

February brought an entertaining and inspiring performance to campus from spoken word artist Odd?Rod. Born Rubrick L. Harvey from Rubrick, Louisiana on December 8, 1982, Odd?Rod has lived a long hard life. He graduated without a father present and drug-addicted mother. Through his wife and children, Rod maintained his grades in school, eventually earning a full scholarship leading to a Bachelor of Fine Arts. Through his poetry, he shows his optimism, his positive attitude, and how he used his God-given talents when he was once in a dark place.

Evening Student Appreciation Week

The last week of January 2013 was named Evening Student Appreciation Week by the Jackson County Campus. Nearly 400 students took advantage of the educational and recreational resources regarding services available by students. The event took place in the Learning Lab Monday through Thursday nights of that week.

JC's Got Talent

The Student Government Association sponsored the second annual JC's Got Talent on February 22. Performers show had not participants, and all provided some great entertainment. Winners were singer Lauren Kanae White, first place; singer Erik Rigney, second place; and comedian Kiana Kalkand in third place. Judges for the evening were Duke Manning, faculty member; Matt Stankov, comedian; and Matt Edwards, local attorney. Serving as emcee was faculty member Robert Whaley.

Get in the Game

The Student Activities and Campus Services departments teamed together on February 27 to bring "Get in the Game" to the Jackson County Campus. This special day focused on healthier food choices that taste good, and nearly 200 students and employees turned out to enjoy sunshine while sampling grilled turkey burgers, veggie-burgers, and other healthy lunch options. The fun and fellowship continued after lunch with games of dodge ball and volleyball in the gym.

Blood Drive

The Jackson County Campus traditionally holds an April Love Blood Drive to raise awareness and support awareness. With an average of 111 pints collected each time, that equals thousands of lives. K. a student and volunteer team helped raise over the past several years.

Club Days

Jackson County College students clubs and organizations held several Club Fairs during the fall and spring semesters to give the student body a chance to learn more about their activities. When another presents, the courtyard around the Clark Tower proves a great place to gather.

Mr. & Miss Jackson County Campus

Emily Dianna Dixon

Emily, a 2011 graduate of Vanhook High School, is the daughter of David and Debbie Dixon. Emily plans to transfer to the University of Southern Mississippi to major in marketing. Emily is an active member in the Reflections Team and has lived all the opportunities it has offered her. She was elected Freshman Class Favorite and 2012 sophomore Interlocking Football maid for the Jackson County Campus.

Emily says, "I chose MCCC because it is close to home and I knew it would direct me in the right direction for my life. I have being so involved and it has brought many new lifetime friends. Coming to MCCC really has been one of the best decisions I've ever made."

Zachary Myers

Zach, a 2011 graduate of Quarter High School, is the son of Robert and Kelly Myers. His brother, Brandon Myers, was Mr. JC in 2008. He plans to pursue a career at Chevron Refinery Pascagoula, White, at Jackson County Campus. Zach was active in two student organizations, the Reflections Team and the Process Technology Club.

Zach says, "I chose to attend MCCC because I really really love what I wanted to major in, and I found that they had the Process Technology program. I joined the course and shortly after I received the Chevron Scholarship. Overall, I've really enjoyed my time here at JC, especially all the new people I met and all of the awesome teachers. I couldn't be happier with being chosen Mr. JC."

Vice President Dr. Carmen Walters

Dr. Carmen Walters joined the staff last month as Vice President of the Jackson County Campus in October 2012. Dr. Walters has always a strong interest in student development opportunities and actively supports special programming for students. She also works with MJ Davis, Region Leader, Steve Gagliardi, Area Chairman, Dale Reynolds, Student Health, and Matt Brown, on the staff of the campus Recreation Learning Building.

Instructor of the Year & Difference Maker

Yolanda Mayberry

Instructor of the Year

Yolanda Mayberry, Human Services Instructor at the Jackson County Campus, has been at Gulf Coast for almost 15 years. Originally from northwest Louisiana, she has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work from the University of Louisiana at Monroe and master's degree in Business Administration - Executive Leadership from William Carey University. She also has an impressive work history and multiple service awards including United Way Volunteer of the Year Award in 2007, the Outstanding Volunteer Service Award from the Miss Poind School District in 2006, and the Heritage Award for Outstanding Community Service, Lifetime 2004.

Mayberry, who is married to her college sweetheart, Douglas Mayberry Sr., moved to Gulfport in 2007. Her husband has worked at Shreve Spine Center as a Senior Technical Illustrator since 1976. They have one son, Douglas Jr., who is a Chemical Engineer Unit supervisor in Southwest Louisiana, and a grandson, Douglas III, who is 2 1/2 years old.

"I believe that every student brings unique and special qualities to a classroom environment that should be used as a stimulus to enhance learning," Mayberry says. "From the moment a student walks into my classroom, a cooperative learning opportunity of mutual respect and trust begins. As an instructor, I believe my role is to create a positive learning environment and instill core values where students model in their learning and develop relationships with their classmates, instructors, and campus and community resources. I believe that learning should actively engage, inspire and motivate students to grow to their fullest potential."

Lisa Ladnier

Difference Maker

Lisa Ladnier was recently surprised to learn she was a 2012 Difference Maker. However, it is not a shock to those who work with her because, after all, her idea of a successful professional relationship is this: "Being a servant to others is vital in building positive relationships."

In her job, Ladnier sees students every day. "It is important to take a personal interest in students' lives. Customer service is making sure that each student has the opportunity to reach his or her full potential."

Ladnier lives in Gulfport with her two children and young sons, Sarah, 10 1/2, and, Kaiti, 8. She is attending the Jackson County Campus and will soon get her Associate of Arts from Gulf Coast. It is in her first semester of college that she met her daughter, Kaiti. It is in her first semester of college that she met her son, Kaiti.

Through her years as a single mother and full-time employee, Ladnier says her inspiration has been her faith which gives her strength and guidance every day. Ladnier received her GED from Gulf Coast in 1997 and has taken courses toward an associate degree. She loves working with children and can do, plan to visit a two-year degree in elementary education.

"She also loves working with the people in her department. "This job has truly touched me. We and the team of my friends, it has touched and inspired me to make a difference in the lives of others," says Ladnier.

Hayley Whitehead

Hayley is the daughter of Michael and Michele Whitehead. She is a graduate of St. Martin High School and is majoring in Secondary Education with an emphasis in History. Hayley plans to teach English and History at the high school level. She would also like to serve as an administrator in one of the McCall County public school systems. "I have greatly enjoyed my time at MCCC. I believe being involved in many student organizations has truly enhanced my experience at JN. I have made lifelong friends over the past five years. I am so happy that I made the decision to attend MCCC. It has given me so many opportunities I know I would not have had anywhere else."

Colton Copeland

Colton is the son of Jeff and Cindy Copeland. He is a graduate of Bland High School and is majoring in Mineral Biology. Colton plans to continue working along the Gulf Coast studying how human intervention affects coastal life. "Being involved on campus and the community, I have made many memories at MCCC. Attending JN is by far one of the best decisions I have made. I have received a great education while having fun by Janyly. I would do it again if I could." "I am a member of Gulf Coast!"

Instructor of the Year & Difference Maker

Ryan Pierini

Instructor of the Year

Ryan Pierini, Fine Arts Department Chair and Theatre instructor at the Johnson Davis Campus, has taught at the college for 11 years. As a theatre instructor, his responsibilities include teaching, directing, choreographing and building scenery for several plays each year. Plays produced in the last several years include a former production of "A Christmas Carol," musicals like "Little Shop of Horrors," and several off-Broadway hits like "Mousetrap." He has collaborated with the Music, Visual Arts and Travel and Tourism Management Technology departments.

Pierini, a native of Chicago, spent his teenage years in the suburbs of Atlanta and attended Georgia College & State University, receiving his Bachelor of Arts in Theatre with an emphasis in Performance. He received a full scholarship to the University of Mississippi to study Theatre, completing his Master of Fine Arts Degree in Acting.

Inspired by the author of the novel "Eat, Pray, Love," Elizabeth Gilbert, and Michele Coombs, who was head of Acting at the University of Mississippi while he was in graduate school, Pierini aims for students to improve his teaching and learning methods. He is currently conducting Voice and Movement training programs in order to help students including Lesons, Kinesiology, Hitting and Yoga and has attended workshops at the Tennessee Theatre's summer camp where he takes techniques, digital media and writing classes.

As head of the Fine Arts Department, he took the year to a successful program and department and to work well with both instructors and students. "As for faculty, I make a practice of being open to their ideas and listening on good communication," he said. "Also, I try not to micromanage and let them do what they know best. With students, I believe in 'using the tool' in their learning. I like to challenge them to make decisions on any situation to help, if that is what is necessary to learn the lesson at hand. Local working and teaching relationships like planning, commitment, communication, evaluation, and peer-teaching."

Linda Everett

Difference Maker

Like all Difference Makers, Linda Everett was inspired when the college president called to tell her she had received the honor for the Johnson Davis Campus. "I was surprised and thought she was calling for my approval," she recalls. It's an honor she deserves because she believes that to do your job well, you have to be receptive to others and their requests. "I enjoy helping my co-workers. If time and knowledge permit, I'll do what I can to help them."

Everett, currently in the Office of Instruction Office, is planning for her retirement from Gulf Coast, and when she does retire at the end of her contract year, she will take with her great memories and lasting friendships. "SMCCC has an abundance of great employees and it's wonderful places to work," she says.

"The attitude of our employees is always positive. There is such a variety of personalities that make the work environment a delight and an education in itself."

She tells the most rewarding customer service, especially for her bus, is customer, the student. "The key to customer (student) service is listening to the student and working toward a solution. Most students only want someone to take an interest in their problems and work toward a solution."

It isn't unusual and has two children and two grandbabies.

Cassidy, an M.Ed. alumna, has a Bachelor of Arts degree in elementary education, with additional endorsements in all and reading from The University of Southern Mississippi. She also has two master's degrees, one in all and one in curriculum and instruction/educational from William Carey University.

Cassidy strives to be the best teacher possible because she believes that teaching is an important responsibility. "I believe that all students, regardless of age, can learn," she says. "As a teacher, it is my responsibility to provide the students with challenging lessons that engage them in learning. I try to try to provide the students with a variety of opportunities and learning experiences to increase their knowledge, and also try to make lessons relevant and real. It is not enough to present a skill, a technique, or learning objective; students need to apply what they learn to real life experiences to understand the importance, value, and purpose that help them make connections between what they are learning and the real world so that students learn the skills needed, apply them to problems, and make a positive impact in the community."

Tammy Hall

Difference Maker

For 22 years, Tammy Hall has been in the M.Ed. family of the Professional Campus. Her current position at M.Ed. is the faculty secretary, admissions secretary, financial aid secretary, and, especially, computer lab assistant. Her responsibility has to be a healthy respect for students.

To Hall, having a positive attitude, patience, understanding, flexibility, respect and a willingness to help one and others working with students...and with us teachers.

Hall, a lifelong Professional resident and an M.Ed. alumna, says her greatest joy always encouraged and supported her. "They taught me values, morals and a good work ethic," she says.

As their mothers, in her life is Brian, her husband. They have been married for 22 years (she says he is her best friend), are parents to son Caleb and daughter Renee and two grand children. Hall, president of the college's Association of Educational Office Professionals, is pursuing a psychology degree at William Carey University. She plans to continue graduate work in counseling.

Hall says she works "with a wonderful group of people every day. We work together as a team supporting each other. They make coming to work a joy."

District Office Difference Maker Mary Martha Breland

Mary Martha Breland, an MEXCE alumna, uses her experience at the college to be the "go-to" for staff for working for the Learning Department. She has enjoyed working.

Breland works diligently to help students and is a dedicated researcher. She was chosen as the Difference Maker in District Office. "I was beyond excited, honored to be, what Dr. Collins told me about the honor. We whole heartedly will support, I shared the news."

Breland helps students create jobs, and she works closely with students. "In our department, we know the importance of being there for faculty and students."

"Chief O'Connell has been fantastic and said, 'I will support whatever things cannot be said to come from I feel about them and my team.'"

A final note: Breland has no children with her husband, Randy, who supports her dream to earn a bachelor's degree. They have two children: Sarah, Morgan, Andrew and Adam.

MGCC ATHLETICS

MGCCC wins Halbrook Award

Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College was named the winner of the annual Halbrook Award for having the highest graduation rate among all of Mississippi's community college systems in 2011. The college was presented the award on 11/18/11 during the 2011 annual meeting of the Association of Community-College Trustees (ACCCT) in Charleston, West Virginia. The award has been given since 1978 to honor colleges for their high graduation rates. The Halbrook Award was established in 1984 by the state Legislature and has led to its recipient colleges that achieve high academic standards and increasing enrollment numbers. According to the Halbrook Award site, James L.H. Halbrook, college dean of Mississippi Institute of Public Administration and the Westborough College, said in the 1980s, "Education is a never-ending process."

Bulldogs finish season ranked No. 8 and play in MACJC All-Star game

For the seventh year in a row, the Bulldogs finished the season ranked eighth in the MACJC poll. MACJC ranked the 2012 campaign ranked No. 8 after a 9-3 season that featured the team's sixth straight trip to the MACJC championship game and sixth South Division title since 2005. The Bulldogs were also listed eighth in the MACJC poll for an overall 101 straight weeks.

Several members of the 2012 Bulldogs proved a huge role in the team's 2012 win over the South of the 2012 Annual MACJC All-Star Game on December 1 at Southeast Missouri Community College. Quarterback Chad Hatten was named the South Division Most Valuable Player Award and received the Keith Lincoln Award. MACJC's Codebreaker, Steve Taylor, Receiver Earl Larrison, Running Backman Jordan and Ben Diller were also part of the team's effort.

Other notable athletes on the Bulldogs team include wide receiver Trequell Williams and kicker Stephen Bannatyne both being selected as All-American. 23 selections and named to the 2012 All-American. Running Back Devin Williams, a freshman from Laramie, Wyoming, caught 47 passes for 1,296 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012, with his yards receiving and TDs both ranked second in the MACJC. Meanwhile a freshman in the Bulldogs, Jason right out of 17 total yards and was 99 out of 100 in every game attempts. Hatten, Jordan, Taylor, Larrison and Craig Frigo were also named to the 2012 MACJC All-Star team.

All MACJC South Division Team members from MACJC are positions back around 2008 Area, Southwest Alabama, Southeast Louisiana, Kentucky and Southern West Texas, Trequell Williams.

MACJC's Trequell Williams (12) catches a passing ball from Detroit Davis (1) during the 2012 MACJC championship game in Sumner, Mo. 2012.

MCCAC soccer teams reflect on 2012 season

On the season looking in, the MCCAC playoffs were not what both Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College soccer teams wanted to be in and looking back.

The Bulldogs and Lady Bulldogs both won MCCAC and Region 23 titles in 2012, but new players and systems and a new head coach (Don Hinkel) meant 2012 was a transitional year on the pitch as the men finished the season with 10 wins to regular season-winning victories over Co. Lac and Mississippi.

The Lady Bulldogs finished 2012 7-1 and narrowly missed the MCCAC playoffs.

Hinkel came to Gulf Coast from Tyler Junior College (Texas), where he spent his years as its assistant coach. During that time, his Tyler team compiled an 89-5 record, won back-to-back NAIA titles (2009-10) and national field in 2011. Before his time at Tyler, Hinkel was a player and later at Florida International University.

Softball clinches No. 2 spot in South Division

The Lady Bulldogs finished second place in the 2013 South Division after sweeping West Central on April 22, 2013, and splitting with Lincoln on April 23 and 24 on April 23.

WCCU dropped game one against Lincoln 1-1 as the offense could not generate five hits while the defense committed three errors. A day later at Stone, the Lady Bulldogs took game one 5-1.

The win advanced the Lady Bulldogs to the next tournament, a 3rd place tiebreaker as the opening round of the MASC Tournament on April 26 (winning the season for the Lady Bulldogs 24-15). This marked the first time since 2006 that WCCU did not participate in the Region 21 Tournament.

Baseball team ends season at 2012 Region 21 Tournament

North Community College announced the 2012 Region 21 baseball team from the Region 21 tournament when a 7-2 victory on May 16, 2012, in Tavares, California.

NCCJC (9-22) outplayed seven top-ranked the highest seed could only give two more members of a team three weeks in the top of the north inning. Daniel Miller and Mychal Paul each had two hits to lead the Bulldogs, who as a team left eight runners on base in the contest. Starting pitcher David Miller (9-4) won three innings and gave up four runs on six hits.

Despite the loss, the 2012 Bulldogs reached the post season for the second straight season and 1999. Qualified in the first round of the MJCCT playoffs, NCCJC also finished second in the MAJC 21 Tournament the following week in Iowa Falls. Home Bulldogs - Daniel Miller, Ben Murray and David Lakin - were named as MVP for All Region 21 from Ocala and the 2012 MJCCT from Tavares. Three other Bulldogs - Tyler Wren, Mychal Paul and Daniel Woodruff - were named to the MJCCT's All-Tournament Team.
